

Dale Irvin

Dale Irvin is a comedian, speaker and author, but is best known as The Professional Summarizer™. As a comedian, he has appeared on over 100 national television shows including appearances on Showtime, MTV, A&E, HBO, and Oprah.

As a speaker, Dale reaches over 100,000 people a year with his message of laughter therapy. He is a Certified Speaking Professional and a member of the Professional Speaker Hall of Fame.

As The Professional Summarizer™ Dale delivers up to the minute comedy monologues based on the events that have just happened. It is a one-of-a-kind presentation that his clients love so much they bring him back year after year. One even said, "What Billy Crystal brings to the Academy Awards, you brought to our meeting."

Dale is the author of eight books including Laughter Doesn't Hurt, Dale Irvin Rewrites History and Insurance As A Second Language. He also publishes Funny Business, a humor newsletter now in its 21st year.
