

Jim Tunney

Drawing from 28 years experience as an educator and 31 years as an NFL referee, Jim Tunney is the celebrity speaker for team building, leadership, peak performance, motivation, customer service and wellness.

Recognized as a speaker who educates, motivates and entertains, Tunney works with Fortune 500 companies and international organizations teaching the skills needed for S.M.A.R.T. goals and effective action. His credentials rank him in the top 1% of professional speakers working today.

Tunney's book, Impartial Judgment, "The Dean of NFL Referees" Calls Pro Football As He Sees It, (Griffin, 1995) chronicles his career in the NFL. Other recent titles include Speaking Secrets of the Masters (Executive Books, 1995), with members of the Speakers Roundtable; and The Winning Spirit (Griffin, 1995), with writings by Les Brown, Jim Cathcart and others on what it takes to shape an Olympic champion's dedication to cause and training. His most recent work is Chicken Soup for the Sports Fan's Soul (published by Health Communications, 2000).

Speech Topics

- T*E*A*M Building
- Leadership
- Customer Care
- Wellness
- The Power of Motivation
- Here's to The Winners

